

As a founding member and COO of RED Development Group, Collette Portis, M.Ed. is a master business coach, strategist, and speaker with more than 20 years of experience helping businesses develop the systems, processes, procedures and dynamic teams necessary for growth. Most recently, she added radio host to her extensive resume as she launched REAL-Eyez Destiny Radio, a show focused on the journey of entrepreneurship. Collette has an extensive educational background earning 6 degrees and authored the strategic planning guide G.O.A.L.I.E. and the G.O.A.L.I.E. Tactical Planner, which has been used to successfully assist clients with clearly defining their business objectives, developing accountability markers, and achieving and exceeding their goals.

Uni Yost, CEO and Founder of GoAskJay Inc., is a serial entrepreneur in technology, consulting and business for over 20 years. She has led and managed multiple businesses that focus on creating new products and services in multiple industries such as insurance, finance, healthcare, real estate, banking, mortgages, and more. Uni is the CEO and Founder of GoAskJay, a leading innovative Insurance (Insurtech) and Financial (Fintech) marketplace platform in a $4 trillion insurance industry with a vision for global growth. She is leading a majority women executive leadership team to grow the company in the US and beyond to a multi-billion-dollar company within 5 years.

Patience Rose, a Value Builder-Certified Business Advisor and Coach is a dynamic business strategist and growth accelerator navigating high potential executives and entrepreneurs to sustained predictable profits. She has navigated more than 500 clients to top and bottom-line growth in a myriad of industries over the last 20 years. Mrs. Rose has established and developed ventures for multi-national profit and nonprofit organizations. As the founder of RED Worldwide, Inc. she has birthed more than 54 businesses and two new products in 23 months. Today, Patience continues to focus on strategic projects that assist human capital with birthing and sustaining their dreams to ultimately impact their local and global communities.

Judy Hoberman, President of Walking on the Glass Floor and Selling in A Skirt-International Speaker, Trainer, Coach, Author and Mentor. Her 30 years in business has given her both the knowledge and sense of humor about how men and women sell, work and live differently will enlighten you in learning how both genders can support each other's successes in a more productive way. She was recently named as a Woman to Watch for International Women's Day 2019 from Thrive Global. Judy's mission to help One Woman A Day by following an important philosophy - "Women want to be treated equally, not identically"™

Reggi Sturns-Kemp, Chief Executive Officer for over 20 years, has positioned companies for growth, strategic market expansion in specialized areas, improved financial performance and profitability. Specifically, with Kemp and Sons General Services, she aggressively pursued federal government contracts and sought others unique in nature within Health, Transportation and Higher Education markets. Her ability to increase revenues 18-fold over a 10-year period led to awards for growth and expansion and recognition by CNN Money, FORBES and other leading magazines and Business Journals. As a result of her outstanding leadership and diverse constructive initiative, Reggi is a trusted Strategic Advisor in the area of enterprise business development who is committed to helping business owners recognize and leverage their past and future contributions to economic advancement.

